. INSPIRATION! .
My picture of the week...

Are YOU feeling Blue?
Well, let's turn it around into something wonderful.
Imagine a walk in these cool woods...

The colors say it all... soothing, soft, serene, cool, quiet and mysterious. Place yourself in the middle of this forest and let the calm wash over you.

. ART .
This is "Harper Protecting Carson"

This was a special portrait I created and is based on one of our Winners submitting a picture of her Grandson & his beloved dog. I was captivated by the way Harper is nestled on Carson... no harm will come to him while he is dreaming away the night. True, true love!

. HOME DESIGN .
Make BLUE work for you!

BLUE!! A most perfect soothing room!

Blue is an incredibly beautiful color area. Use it to create an oasis of serenity in your home.

This room works really well because of the combination of COOL [blue] & WARM [woodtones]. They balance each other to create a harmonious environment.

- The subject matter of the paintings is interesting to me. They are landscapes which add to the calm.
- My only caution is to not overuse this color... a little goes a long way.

- White cabinetry, a white lamp base and natural sofa provide needed neutrals & texture to this space!

. PAPER FLOWERS .
A tribute in BLUE!

I have a very dear friend who asked me to create a little 'memorial' bouquet as a remembrance of someone she loved. This was to be given to the family as a keepsake.

Together we discussed the flowers and colors that would be most perfect. I feel this is a beautiful expression of her love all done in sculpted paper. I added a little wooden Cross with Sterling Silver wire to complete this gift.

YOU have the ability to create all these flowers too.
Simply check out our instructions.

. PAINTED FURNITURE .
FRESH BLUE !

Please know how little it takes to freshen a vintage piece of furniture. This dresser was completely updated by painting it with a lovely, light blue. In addition, wooden decorative legs were added to lift the dresser and give it a whole new personality! It looks so French!

With my every best wish...

This is my little Zachary when he was just four weeks old. I always try to find a little personal picture to share with you that relates to the color of the week.

I know how BLUE we all might be feeling lately. Sincerely, I really try to stay focused on creativity... and this time, trying to stay 'socially distant' has redirected my focus. Drawing, painting, a little writing... I love it all. Please let me know how you are doing. If you have ANY suggestions for colors you'd like me to feature or topics... just let me know. I am here for you! Be well everyone!
