. Bright GREEN & Calming BROWN !! .

. INSPIRATION! .

'Always behave like a duck - keep calm & unruffled on the surface, but paddle like the devil underneath.'

Jacob M. Braude

This is such a beautiful nod to nature on Mother's Day; a mama duck leading the way for her little family. It is always so beautiful to watch the mothers in nature as they tend to their little ones.

. ART .

This painting by Mary Cassatt is a sensitive portrayal of Mothers. Many of her works centered around children and portray the gentle spirit she felt towards family.

. INTERIOR DESIGN .

A Statement in Green & Brown !
This Space works really well because:

- There is beautiful contrast between the spring green and the natural and calming brown tones!
- I particularly like this image because so many of us have these small spaces to design. The most has been made of this space with small scale furnishings & thoughtful placement of elements.

- Notice how the horizontal siding on the end wall makes the space appear wider. The glass top table provides a reflective and translucent surface.
- Cushions hung from a rod make smart use of the space by suspending pillows for back comfort.

. PAPER ART .

This charming artistic creation is beautifully displayed under a glass cloche. Simple perfection!

With my every best wish...

"Biology is the least of what makes someone a mother."

- Oprah Winfrey

There are so many people in our lives who take on an importance we never expected. Sometimes family, sometimes friends... who we lean on for their wisdom, support, confidence & love. These special people can very much take on the role of 'Mother'... and in soft & subtle ways they share their wisdom & generous spirit with us. It is a beautiful thing to share your love with someone who needs you. 'Happy Mother's Day' to everyone who is a 'mom' to their children and to those out there who emotionally adopt others and listen, guide, nurture & love them unconditionally!

...with my every best wish, Barbara
