My picture of the week...

Walking down the streets of Amsterdam you'll discover the most lovely flower markets. The colors cover the spectrum. The underside of these umbrellas reflect the most captivating of colors... orange! Use Orange to create your own environment of energy!!

Thoughts about the color ORANGE:

- Orange is the color of fun & geometry
- This color captures our attention & interest
- It exudes positive energy & creativity

. ART .

This Paper Mosaic is full of personality !!

Creating this Paper Mosaic was a labor of love. There are thousands of tiny bits of paper and imagery that comprise this work. It is one of my favorites!

. HOME DESIGN .
Welcome Home to Orange !!

This most beautiful orange is warm, drawing us into this lovely home. Count on this color for a friendly embrace.

- A crisp white ceiling, trim & wainscot add a needed light value balance to this color composition
- The black banister railing and framing details offer contrast and make a dynamic statement
- Natural elements of leaves & butterflies are showcased in artwork to provide soft additions to the overall concept

. PAPER FLOWERS .
Sweet Orange...

When roaming through estate sales, flea markets and antique shows I am always looking for little 'orphan' pieces of china. I found this pretty sugar bowl several years ago. I love the orange, black & cream colors.

A little bouquet of pink, orange, white, cream & gray leaves creates a happy little composition that lifts my spirits each time I see it.

There is an assortment of flowers. Select any flower and simply use the perfect colors for your container to make your bouquet be the star. Add pearls and little jewels for an extra bit of glam.

With my every best wish...

By now you know my baby Zachary. He is my little prince. In this photo he is sitting on my tangerine bedding from Issac Mizrahi. I found this quilt at Target years ago and it is still so lovely after years of my kitties napping on it and just being kitties on it!
