. On Trend PINK !! .

. INSPIRATION! .

'Just living is not enough... one must have sunshine,
freedom, and a little flower.'

Hans Christian Andersen

Pink... fresh, pretty, sweet & special pink. As this delicate and sometimes strong color bursts forth this season it is all the more precious because it is not here for very long. Let's cherish every moment we have it surrounding us!

. ART .

This stunning painting by Fiona Craig is titled: 'Tulipomania: Pale Pink Parrots'. It is radiant in the pinks of spring. To the artist, these are a favorite due to their extraordinary shapes and patterning. 'Tulipomania' or 'Tulip Mania' represent times during the 17th century when investors purchased tulips, elevating their prices to soaring amounts. Paintings of these and other flowers were popular as they were far less expensive than the flowers themselves and became popular to collect.

. INTERIOR DESIGN .

A Statement in PINK !

This Space works really well because:

- The pink tone softens the entire area, creating a chic and gentle place to work & live.

- Notice how the black and white elements provide contrast and clarity, shaping the personality of home.
- This color has been popular in the past and is making new waves in the interior design trends of 2021 due to the fact it is elevated in the world of fashion and is a color we are readily embracing.

. PAPER FLOWERS .

Pink is contrasted beautifully with neutral colors of black, silver and in this example, brown. Wreaths are incredibly fun to create. Embellished with paper flowers they have the ability to bring out your creativity and personality!

A plain, Mid-Century Modern cabinet is made extraordinary by incorporating an enlarged floral photograph on the two flat doors of this cabinet. I am excited to try this design solution. Now I just have to find the perfect element of furniture. Off to the Flea Markets & Second Hand Stores to explore!

With my every best wish...

T O D A Y
I S Y O U R
D A Y

This quote that has been said by many people... and sung by Shania Twain. It underscores that each day we are given challenges and we make our own choice on how to react and take charge of how to move forward.

I am going to try and not let anything stand in my way of making this day... this one day, be the best I can make it.

Then I'll try to do the same tomorrow.
Wish me luck & I wish the same for you!

'Today Is Your Day' by Shania Twain

Inspiration that led to this SONG!

Please stay safe & healthy & determined!
...with my every best wish, Barbara
