

EMERALD VIOLET

. INSPIRATION! .
My picture of the week...

This is a visual feast of RED & Green !!

I remember growing up in Olmsted Falls and trying to grow strawberries in our backyard. We knew nothing of gardening... yet, to our surprise, they grew like crazy. Our efforts pulling a little wagon filled with water back to those patches make me smile. To this day that strawberry scent takes me back to those sweet summer moments.

. HOME DESIGN .
An easy way to add color to your home!

COLOR!! I will never be bored with Color!

Many times in my career I have met people that were either fearful of adding color or not able to because they lived in an apartment and needed to live with beige.

An excellent option is to create a massive painting in the color you love. Even if the canvas is painted with ONE solid color, it will work to bring that space to life!

- The neutral walls, sofa and field of the carpet bring a lovely and quiet calm to this space.

- The patterned accent pillows add that spice and character we all want in our homes.
- Make sure to repeat your accent in a strong element, such as the chair in the foreground. Perfection!

. PAPER FLOWERS .
A little floral touch of RED!

This corrugated, oval container holds a variety of flowers including a RED Poppy along with several Compass Roses and Painted Iris blooms. This is a beautiful expression of sculpted paper.

YOU have the ability to add this note of colors to your home... simply check out our instructions.

. PAINTED FURNITURE .
RED Red RED !

This little French side table was a sad little item until we spiced it up with a fabulous dressing of RED. The top has a subtle addition of metallic paint for a little faux finish.

Think about all the good you can do to help the planet by creative paint solutions for your furniture.

With my every best wish...

This is my little Gretta when she was just a kitten. Captivated more by the ribbon than by the RED, but she is so cute that I really wanted to share it with you.

Please stay creative & safe. Surround yourself with color to make you feel spectacular. You will absorb all the energy it has to offer!!
