. ART .
"Serene California Coast"

This artwork was created in the Plein Air style while I was visiting California a number of years ago. It was done in acrylics, I left it alone for a long while.

Recently I was inspired to incorporate and blend pastels over the original art to create an entirely fresh work. I have learned to simply keep on aiming towards your vision... you'll get there... with a few delightful surprises along the way.

. HOME DESIGN .
Stylish Serenity !

Calm & Tranquil Teal...

What is your goal for your home? If you are searching for an atmosphere of lovely quiet and peaceful color, teal might be the perfect choice for you.

To me this room works so well because the teal is layered in a variety of tones and shades, adding variety.

- The soft tone on the distant feature inset pulls your vision across the room adding a gentle note of color.
- The darker upholstered chair, geometric pillows and carpet support the calming atmosphere.
- Count on accessories to underscore your color theme. The tray and glass accents do the job!

. PAPER FLOWERS .
A little music & pink & teal...

I love color and you all know... I love paper too! This is a very fun centerpiece that I created for a special event for a local Garden Club. Their theme was music, so in addition to the teal & pink I also made flowers from old songbooks. I love that it is an unexpected combination!

. PAINTED FURNITURE .
OLD Plant Stand & NEW Style !

I found this orphaned Plant Stand at a Flea Market and knew it could be stunning. I painted the top with a metallic gray and the bottom with metallic gold. The middle was reserved for our special Teal!

With my every best wish...

I always try to find a 'closing' picture that is something personal and incorporates the color we are featuring. This image was taken in Windsor a number of years ago while I was working with our Global Team on Color Trends. I still have this teal coat, it seems to work well with my favorite black skirts and pearls. Lately I have not been doing much 'dressing up'... I think I'll start wearing my fun outfits to the grocery store.
