. INSPIRATION! .
My picture of the week...

When I feel stressed, sometimes simply looking outside helps me feel more calm. [Once the lawn is cut and the weeds are pulled of course.] I look around and sincerely appreciate every flower, nuance of green and changing sky. Getting lost in the curves and shades of this rose makes me feel at peace with the world.

Think about YELLOW:

- It is the color of happiness & optimism

- If you'd like to boost your energy, select yellow.
- It is a Primary color, along with Red & Blue.
- Yellow, in some cultures, represents Royalty.

. ART .
Pixelated Roses !!

This artwork is created from an original painting that I did in acrylics. Once completed I took a photo and in PhotoShop, played with the color spectrum to create this unusual and glistening color palette of roses. I love that it sparkles & shimmers with color!!

. HOME DESIGN .

The warmth of yellow-gold for your dining area !

A stimulating space for dining, conversation and creativity. This area offers multiple ideas for our homes:

- The fresh gold feature wall offers a great focal point.
- White & black artwork creates a neutral gallery.
- Deep tones in the charcoal table and countertop,

along with gray shelving bring beautiful contrast.

- Provide a mix of chair styles for a twist on tradition.
- Crisp white floors, cabinets & walls unify elements.

. PAPER FLOWERS .

Soft yellow roses...

This beautiful bouquet was created by a young friend. Her first attempt to create paper flowers turned out to be a spectacular vision. It incorporates our Compass Rose, French Lily, Tori's Natural Daisy and Painted Lily. Pretty impressive for a first attempt... right?

. PAINTED FURNITURE .
Not 50, but four shades of yellow !

Wow! Look what four simple shades of yellow can do for a sleepy little dresser. Color breathes new life into this simple style. Add folded leather loops for drawer pulls, white wire chairs and a striped area carpet for a Modern atmosphere. Go ahead... create your dream room!

With my every best wish...

Another bright spot for me... my little Zachary. This picture was taken when we first adopted him about twelve years ago. He has the same energy today that he did when he first came to live with us. This yellow underscores his true nature... playful & energetic!
